Town Clerk resigns

AFTER 15
YEARS

Altona's Town Clerk, Mr. Jim Waters, has tendered his resignation, in order to take up duties as Town Clerk of Moorabbin, in July.

Mr. Waters officially announced his resignation in his report to council at the ordinary meeting on Monday night, 14 years and nine months after he had started as Municipal Clerk in Altona.

He will leave Altona Council after the close of business on Wednesday, May 31 and take up the position of Town Clerk Elect of the City of Moorabbin the following day.

He will assume duties as the Town Clerk of that municipality from Monday, July 17.

A past national president of the Institute of Municipal Administration, Mr. Waters came to Altona in 1957 from Hawkesdale, in western Victoria, where he was shire secretary.

He has played a major role in Altona's development, having steered its municipal affairs since they were handed to him by Werribee shire secretary Mr. N. G. Minns, not long after Altona gained severance from the Werribee shire.

During that time the population of the municipality has quadrupled.

Earlier this week a councillor who has spent more than six years with Altona council described Mr. Waters as a man of "tremendous vision and tremendous capacity".

Talking to the Star, Cr. Les Crofts said although Altona was an old-established place, it was during the past 15 years, through the ambassadorship of Mr. Waters, that the municipality had gained recognition throughout Victoria and Australia.

Cr. Crofts added: "The true worth of this man won't really be uncovered until the history of Altona is written."

"History will prove the wisdom of the council which appointed Jim Waters in 1957," he said. "Naturally we have acknowledged his good work whenever the opportunity arose."

Last year, on his birthday, Mr. Waters was described as a "champagne town clerk" by Altona's mayor, Cr. Pat Lynch.

It seems likely at this stage that the man who will replace Mr. Waters is deputy town clerk Mr. Sid Fell. Mr. Fell came to Altona council last year after serving as shire secretary at Warracknabeal.

THE BIG FOAM

Last week, the Kororoit Creek, North Altona, ran white with foam for almost three quarters of a mile.

The foam was accidentally discharged by B. F. Goodrich Chemical Limited.

At Monday night's council meeting, Altona's chief health inspector, Mr. John Mellors, reported that the foaming on the creek was due to an accidental discharge of a foam-producing agent into the company's effluent treatment system.

Mr. Mellors, accompanied by Mr. E. J. Mifsud, had interviewed company representative Mr. J. E. Brewster, who said as soon as his company was aware of the problem the discharge was stopped and the creek surface was sprayed with a harmless defoaming substance.

Mr. Brewster added: "To prevent a recurrence, a special holding pond will be built, so that similar material can be held, suitably treated and disposed of."

STAR GAZE

When Jim Waters leaves Altona at the end of next month to take up duties as Moorabbin's town clerk, he'll take a piece of Altona with him. For quite a while things won't be the same without the man who has steered the affairs of this municipality for almost 15 years. Jim has been more than a town clerk, he's been an excellent public relations man and above all, an Altona resident.

If his successor does half as good a job, he'll have the people of Altona right behind him.

Recent visitor to Altona council meeting was 75-year-old Mr. Albert Neyland, who for many years wrote the editorials for the old Altona Star. Before working at the Star for his son, Mr. Keith Neyland, Albert worked as an accountant for Massey Ferguson in Sunshine for 40 years. He joined that company when it was known as McKays.

(Footnote: If we've quoted your age wrong Mr. Neyland, blame Keima Press.)

Fans of local pop group, the Vehicle, will no doubt be hard smitten by the fact that the fellows broke up last Saturday. Recently their road manager, Fred, was drafted into the army and without a road manager how can any vehicle function?

Believe the older age group were equally hit recently when Ken Kennedy's group, the Adam Set broke up. Ken and his boys became very popular for the old-time numbers they played.

Mick the Wild Barber from Somers Parade, added yet another sash to his collection last week when he won another event with his shotgun. Is it any wonder he can afford all the new furnishings?

It was too wet and windy for Altona Surf Club to try the waves last weekend so instead they went rabbiting and bagged a few, much to the annoyance of the femlins who were not permitted to go on the trip.

June Crofts to head auxiliary

New President of the Altona District Hospital Ladies' Auxiliary is Mrs. June Crofts of Civic Parade.

Mrs. Crofts, the wife of Altona councillor, Les Crofts, was elected to the position last week following the resignation of former president, Mrs. Eden Heriot.

Mrs. Heriot resigned after she had sold her home on The Esplanade to move to the other side of the city.

Mrs. Crofts will now hold the auxiliary post until August when, if she is re-elected, she will continue as president for twelve months.

A housewife, Mrs. Crofts is a keen member of Altona Tennis Club and enjoys sewing.

Air minded? Join the League

The Altona Squadron of the Australian Air League was established six months ago.

And leader Mr. Tony Van Riet feels that the League is doing a good job in developing worthwhile members of the community.

Tony is a supplier with the RAAF at Laverton, and although the League is not associated with the RAAF he finds his knowledge of much use to the boys.

The League was first formed to create an interest in aviation.

Members from the age of 10 on are taught all facets of aviation, first aid, radio and signalling, model making and drill.

The uniform is a pale blue shirt, dark blue trousers, and navy blue forage.

The Altona Squadron has 42 members at present and it is hoped to bump this membership up to a maximum of 100.

Tony says: "The League helps the boys to deal with the different aspects and problems of daily living and to become worthwhile members of the community.

"Also, the League is somewhere different and interesting for children and adults to go.

"Members don't have to go into the RAAF or aviation — but we find that many of them do, because their interest is aroused."

Tony says that it is important to remember that aviation is not simply restricted to flying.

And that there are numerous different branches of aviation which a boy can enter into.

The League has a ranking system much like that of the RAAF, with cadets, corporals, sergeants, squadron sergeants and warrant officers.

Promotion is gauged by the standard reached in proficiency certificates which members take and by general progress and behavior.

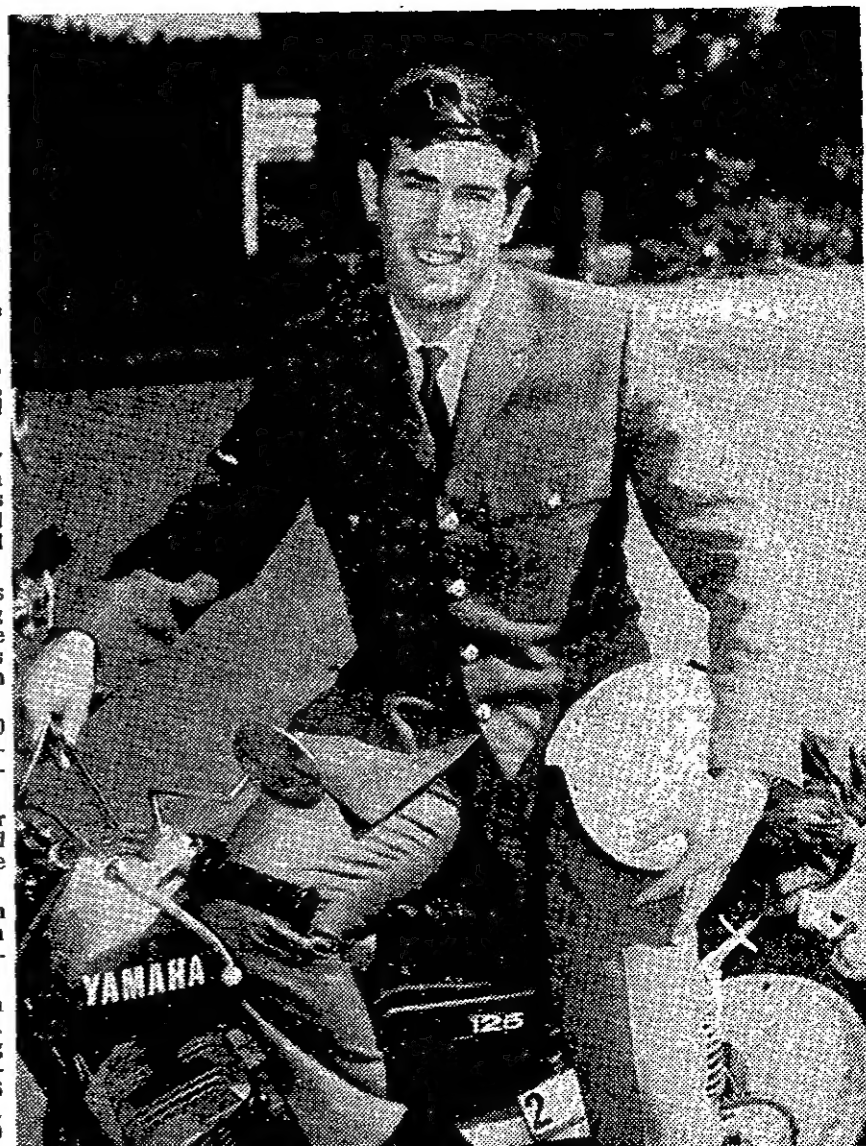

Tony adds: "This helps to make the whole thing even more of a challenge and an incentive. It equips the boys for work when they leave school.

The League has 5000 members throughout Victoria, NSW and Queensland.

Members include Air Marshal Sir Richard Williams, 76, who is the Victorian patron.

The Altona Squadron meets in the Altona Youth Hall at 8 p.m. on Tuesdays.

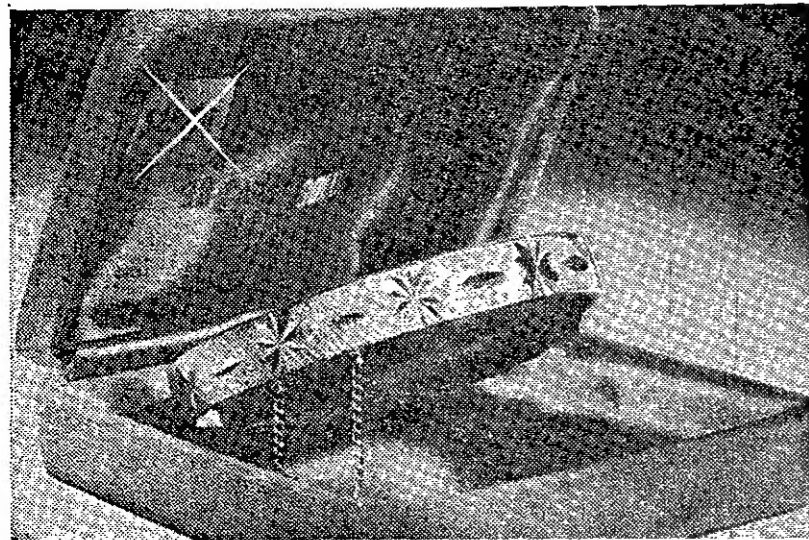

It is now hoped to form a girls squadron in Altona. Anyone interested in being an organiser should contact Mr. Alwin Findlay, 6 Cowra Street, Altona, Mr. Kingsley Newman, 130 Civic Parade, or Mr. Van Riet on 399 1311, extension 218.

Altona Squadron leader Mr. Tony Van Riet. The group helps to train worthwhile members of the community, he says.

FOOTY POOLS "COOKED UP" — MLA

The Premier, Sir Henry Bolte, and the VFL president, Sir Maurice Nathan, had "cooked up something" on the Sports Promotion Bill, Mr. W. L. Floyd, MLA (Labor, Williamstown) has alleged.

Mr. Floyd was speaking during the debate on the bill, which allows the establishment in Victoria of football pool competitions.

He alleged Sir Henry and Sir Maurice had made arrangements while both were on an overseas trip.

Mr. Floyd said members of the public knew of the pool-approval Bill before it was presented in Parliament.

He further alleged that details of the bill were already in type at a Melbourne daily newspaper office when the bill was presented by the Chief Secretary, Mr. Hamer.

He said he considered he was entitled to ask Mr. Hamer to explain how everybody in Melbourne knew in detail the contents of the bill before members of Parliament did.

MONTHS

He had thought Mr. Hamer would either give an explanation or make an apology after asking leave to introduce the bill.

Opposition members had been trying for months to get information on the subject.

"Ever since the Premier went overseas with the president of the Victorian Football League and cooked up something, we have been attempting to find out what it was," Mr. Floyd said.

"I was put in a ridiculous situation yesterday when I rang the secretary of the Victorian Football Association, Mr. Fred Hill, to tell him that at last the Government had decided to do something about football pools," he added.

He had told Mr. Hill he would send him a copy of the bill as soon as possible, with the Minister's explanation.

Mr. Hill had been able to tell him what he had read in a daily newspaper.

This was virtually the second reading speech the Minister would deliver later that day or the next day.

"I contend that that state of affairs is derogatory to the prestige of this House," Mr. Floyd said.

"Everybody in Melbourne knows what is going on except the members of Parliament, who are supposed to know.

"For months the Government has been squirming and sliding out of questions on this subject."

He said he understood the bill's contents had been on television the previous night, before second reading was delivered in Parliament.

Clash of swords in Footscray Mall!

The clatter of clashing swords will be heard in the Footscray Mall on Friday between 7 and 8 p.m.

A fencing display will be given in the Mall by members of the western-suburbs-based Scimitar Fencing Club.

The display will start with Maitre John

Fethers and Gary Worsfield, in a sword and dagger duel.

Mr. Fethers, a world standard fencer, will also speak on the fencing weapons—the foil, epee and sabre.

His talk will be illustrated by Scimitar Club members giving demonstrations.

The club's publicity officer, Mr. Robert Garlick, said new members were invited to learn the sport, which he said required a great deal of skill for success.

Mr. Garlick can be contacted on 311 3596, or calling or writing to him at 19 Gertrude Street, Sunshine.

Busy hands can be busy hands girls. Hand lotion, or better still Coty nail and hand (combined), Creme, near your sink, applied after each wetting, keep hands and nails in soft, yet strong condition. A little attention regularly to your nails is another natural.

Do you know your nail is "framed" by a nail wall and cuticle on three sides? This "frame" is merely skin and like all skin it produces new cells and throws off the old. Unless the cuticle is kept pliable and free from the wall plate, these cells will encroach upon, and partly cover, part of the nail surface. Then as the nail moves upward the skin stretches, breaks, causing long nails to look short and shabby.

The matrix — and only this is the living reproduction portion of your nail. Here is determined the character, quality and health — and strength. But take weeks and months to come to the visible eye.

About one fifth of the length of your nail is in this matrix—any injury below the nail line that is — in the matrix) will show up shortly as this portion of nail becomes visible — you see.

The nail, as you see it is on the nail bed and is called a nail plate.

This plate is made up of many ridged layers fused together for strength. See the ridges?

The free edge explains itself. This should be cut when soft — after bath or shower, or filed only when firm and dry.

Leave a little free edge showing at the very sides to give strength. File to the shape best suited to your hands.

Special for you right now is Revlon Body Moisture Lotion in fragrances of Aquamarine and Intimate.

Silicare — just what your hands need on these cooler mornings. Hanging out washing, gardening, or whatever — use silicare to put protection between you and dryness and grime.

Hand treatment cream in a large, large tube to use first thing in the morning and last think at night.

THE WINNER!

Victorian driver John Harvey drove his Castrol-McLaren sports car to a fine win in the second round of the Australian sports car championship at Adelaide International Raceway this month, shattering the circuit's lap record in the process.

Leading from the starting flag, Harvey consistently lapped under the fastest previous sports car time of 58.3 seconds, finally leaving the record at 56.2.

Second in the race, a lap behind, was fellow-

Victorian Alan Hamilton in a 906 Porsche, ahead of Doug McArthur's Renmax Repco.

The win gives Harvey's Castrol-McLaren a two-point lead in the series, with 26 points to Hamilton's 24. The next sports car round will be at Warwick Farm, New South Wales, on April 30.

THE HOLDEN LION

The General Motors-Holden's lion emblem is not an uncommon sight to the Australian motorist. Some 2,500,000 Holden and Torana models have displayed the lion since the first Holden was produced in 1948.

However, the lion's history is somewhat older than the first Holden. In fact, it is almost as old as history itself.

It is derived from the ancient Egyptian lion that was made popular as the symbol presiding over the great Wembley Exhibition of the 1920s, and was originally designed for Holdens by Australian sculptor Raynor Hoff.

Under direction from what was then Holden Motor Body Builders, Hoff's design incorporated a rough-hewn stone.

This is a reference to the stone's legendary significance as the forerunner of the wheel. The circular stone is often confused as a globe of the world.

The letters GMH were added to the stone when General Motors-Holden's Limited, was formed, in 1931.

This design was used on all bodies built by GMH before the introduction of the first Holden.

The association of the lion with the Holden car became so strong that it was decided to reserve it for exclusive use on the cars.

The letters GMH were removed from the stone announcement in July, about the time of the FE model, released in 1960.

Prior to the HQ Holden 1971, the lion was changed quite dramatically to resemble more closely the traditional heraldic lion.

It was also symbolic of the dramatic styling change introduced with the HQ Holden range.

The lion emblem is used in all Holden vehicles and the majority of official GMH publications.

CHEAPEST LAND TO BE $6000 IN 1974

The cheapest block of land in metropolitan Melbourne in 1974 will cost about $6000, according to a leading land developer.

The developer, Mr. Ian McIntosh, general manager of Westmilton (Victoria) Pty. Ltd., quotes as his authority Mr. A. Williams, president of a Land Development conference in Melbourne recently.

He said this highlighted the urgency for home builders to buy before prices rose.

At present, fully sewer- ed land, complete with underground power supply, was available at Westmilton from $3950 to $4650, he said.

These sites were only 25 miles from Melbourne facing Ballarat Road.

Mr. McIntosh said reasons for the expected price spiral were:

● Due to land shortages, land development companies would this year produce the lowest number of blocks for 10 years.

● People would be forced to pay for the installation of sewerage systems, which had increased by about 400 per cent. in the past three years.

Every block was completely ready to build on, he said.

Power and telephone lines were installed underground, water and gas were available to all lots, and roads were fully sealed with concrete kerbs, underground drains and footpaths finished.

The land offer presented a wonderful opportunity for young couples recently or about to be married, the sales manager at Delphic Realty Pty. Ltd., Mr. Ted Payne, said. The company is the agent in the Westmilton development.

In addition to the actual development, the sites were close to shops, public transport, schools, churches and all facilities.

Well over 100 quality three and four-bedroom homes had been finished during the course of construction.

A new display village showing 12 new home designs would be ready for inspection within the next few weeks and intending home buyers would find great interest in these models, Mr. Payne said.

In a joint statement, Mr. McIntosh and Mr. Payne said a visit to Melton would show the tremendous development in the area.

New stores and supermarkets, big parking areas as well as housing developments and schools showed that Melton was really on the move.

Land at Westmilton could be inspected any time, they said.

To reach Westmilton, drive through the Melton shopping centre to Colburns Road and drive to Westmilton Drive.

Inquiries regarding the development should be directed to Delphic Realty Pty. Ltd., 72 High Street, Melton, telephone 713 5284 or after hours, to Mr. Payne on 713 5762.

Mushrooms— they can be hallucinatory

"There is no easy way of distinguishing edible from poisonous mushrooms," warns Mr. John Walker, a research scientist from the Department of Agriculture.

"Tests, such as color changes, are valueless on their own," he adds.

Some species are hard to identify, even in a laboratory.

Mr. Walker was commenting on the many mushrooms received from people who wanted to know if they were edible.

Some species were capable of poisoning.

Symptoms of poisoning could range from mild gastric upsets to severe illness with hallucination and depression. A few species can even cause death.

Mr. Walker recommended that people should not gather field mushrooms for food.

"Cultivated mushrooms are grown under carefully controlled conditions and are readily available at fruit and vegetable shops," he said.

The next meeting of Williamstown Camera Club will be on May 4.

Nominations will be called for president to replace Mr. Robert Winduss, who leaves shortly for 12 months' overseas.

A Victorian Amateur Photographic Society lecturer will speak on general photography.

Entries for the next two competitions, 'open' and 'hands' are required now by the print and slide steward.

Results of the previous competition judged by Mr. P. English are:

'Open' — Mrs. J. Trist, first; Mr. T. Young, second and Mr. H. Johnston, third.

'Industry' — Miss G. Leslie, first; Mrs. I. Trist, second and Mrs. M. Wyatt, third.

Four new members were welcomed at the last meeting and a taped lecture on nature photography concluded the programme.

The Altona Inspecorate Migrant Integration Committee has quickly brought to fruition plans for its first International Festival on Sunday.

The three-hour function will commence at 2 p.m., with venues at Altona North High School and Mt. St. Joseph's Girls' School, Altona.

Two programmes of concert items will be presented as well as independent but similar programmes at both venues to serve both halves of the city. At each venue there will be an art and craft display.

Notice is hereby given that the Short Road Steam Ferry plying across the River Yarra between Newport and Port Melbourne, will cease running at 8.30 p.m. on Friday, 28th April, 1972.

It is anticipated that the Ferry will resume running early the following week.

Trees planted to beautify creek

Altona Council is planting 100 trees for the Altona Rotary Club along the south side of Kororoit Creek.

The planting is part of the club's plan to beautify the barren area between the Creek and Cherry

Lake near the Millers Road bridge.

The trees will cover a distance of 500 feet.

It is hoped eventually to plant trees along the full length of the creek, subject to flooding restrictions, where it runs through the City of Altona.

Mr. Jim Eagland of Altona Rotary Club told The Star that the area of land concerned was particularly barren.

"We want to make this area more attractive for both residents and visitors," he said.

He pointed out an added advantage was the oxygen given out by the trees.

"In a recent survey in America it was found that more oxygen is being used than being produced," he said.

"I can see a day when this will happen in Australia because it has huge areas without vegetation.

"And particularly in areas such as Altona where the atmosphere is polluted anyway it is essential that more oxygen be made available.

"The trees that we plant will be continually adding oxygen to the atmosphere."

The club has bought the trees from the Board of Works at a cost of $35. This is a reduction on the normal cost.

Council is planting and maintaining the trees and protective fencing will be put up by Rotoract members.

Doug Lindsay's first Williamstown Little Theatre production The Shifting Heart by Richard Beynon is almost a complete sellout.

A few tickets are still available for the early nights of the second week but they are selling rapidly.

Williamstown Little Theatre's ticket director, Alec Colville would like theatre-goers who have missed out in the scramble for seats to ring the theatre on 397 6705 after 7.30 p.m. during the run of the season from April 26 to May 6.

People are often forced to cancel their tickets at short notice and these are returned to the theatre.

If a person requiring a seat leaves his name and telephone number, he will find his name at the top of the list and a comfortable seat waiting for him.

Those who are unable to obtain tickets are reminded that it is easy to become a subscriber and have tickets sent well in advance of ordinary booking.

Interested people could write to Neil Colville, Box 35, P.O. Williamstown, 3016.

CAMERA CORNER

Williamstown Camera Club meets at the Methodist Church Hall, Pascoe Street on the first and third Thursday of each month at 7.30 p.m.

The third Thursday of the month is informal. Members are encouraged to bring slides for general discussion and those who have invested in new equipment are asked to pass on first hand knowledge about their experience.

ALTONA TENNIS FORM IS GOOD

Altona's top L.T.A.V. pennant team had an easy victory against Yarraville last Saturday.

Captain Wayne Thomas, with a fine 6/3, 6/5 win over Yarraville's top player, George Kinti, started the locals off on the right note and from that moment onwards they did not look backwards.

Thomas's teammates must have gained great encouragement to watch him take the second set out after being 4/0 down.

Of the other Altona players, Des Murphy, playing his first pennant match, had a great 6/2, victory, and Stephen Whitecross fought desperately to take out his match in three sets.

The only loss suffered by Altona was the third rubber, where Don Whitecross went down 3/6, 3/6.

This subsequently left Altona victors three rubbers to one and forty-two games to thirty-five.

More than three-quarters of the U.19 matches last Sunday were washed out.

However of the matches played one pleasing feature appeared. This was the enthusiasm shown by the Altona players.

In the past there were always a few players who arrived late or not at all. This was not the case last week and if it continues the season looks very bright for Altona.

The teams for this coming Sunday's matches are:

Section 1 v. Kingsville at home: G. Crofts, I. Colling, B. Murphy, Y. Robertson, B. Colvin, H. Shields.

Section 2 v. St. Monica's at home: J. Hayes, M. Groves, A. Findlay, M. Keown, L. Stracey, J. Graham.

Section 3 No. 1 v. Liston

Any player unavailable MUST notify W. Thomas (398 2092) as soon as possible.

13 players battle on

Playing their first match at Coburg last Saturday, the Williamstown thirds were beaten by 12 goals, but the scores are not a true indication of the sterling effort put in by the 13 ft players left at the end of the match.

Due to injuries and clearance problems the thirds only had 16 players with which to start the match. K. Smith and J. Russ who were injured in the first half could not be replaced and to make matters worse D. Gratton was injured in the third quarter leaving the thirds with only 13 ft players to complete the match.

Despite this, they played the match right out and refused to admit defeat. By so doing they lost no friends or prestige.

Final scores: Coburg 18.13 (12) d. Williamstown 6.16 (52). Goal-kickers: F. Raeside 2, K. Smith 1, R. Scott 1, G. Sinnott 1, K. Saunders 1.

Best players: S. Dooley, J. Poupato, S. Gubbins, R. Scott, M. Hynes, S. Jackson and K. Saunders.

This Saturday the thirds will unfurl their 1971 pennant, after which they will play Sandringham. With a full team they will no doubt put in a much better performance.

Williamstown fourths defeated Williamstown Methodists by a goal in a heart-stopping last quarter at the local ground last Saturday.

The Meths. looked set for a good win when, in the third quarter they converted a 22 point deficit into an 18 point lead.

In the last quarter the fourths kicked three goals to level the scores, then trailed by a goal when the Meths. made a determined effort to take the game away.

But the fourths were not to be denied. Showing great courage and with superior stamina they once again levelled the scores and followed up with another goal to take the match.

This Saturday the fourths play away to last year's runner-up Werribee. The players and supporters bus will leave the town hall at 8.45 a.m.

Final scores: Williamstown 9.7 (61) d. W'stown Meths. 8.7 (55).

Goal-kickers: G. Fitzpatrick 2, B. Muldowney 2, N. Kerss 2, G. Dean 1, A. Sims 1, S. Friend 1.

Best players: S. Wilson, P. Splatt, G. Dean, R. Shaw, G. Fitzpatrick, E. Messina and B. Muldowney.

Dismal opening

Williamstown Baseball Club had a dismal opening to the winter baseball season, with all three senior teams being defeated.

The firsts had numerous opportunities with a number of safe hits, but were unable to capitalise on these efforts.

Results: Firsts: Williamstown 6 lost to Moorabbin 9. Safe hits: Pedretti 2, Rowe 2, Treadwell, Home run, Harris, McLeod, Flower and Johnson. Seconds: Williamstown 2 lost to Moorabbin 3. Safe hits: Collins 3, Horsborough, Bowyer and Baker.

Thirde: Williamstown 10, lost to Moorabbin 13. Safe hits: Humphries 2, Knight 2, Baker. Juniors recorded wins in the under 17 and under 13 teams.

Results: U.17: Williamstown 2 d. Diamond Valley 0. Safe hits: Maloney 2, Shaw.

ALTONA: THE POWER SIDE

Altona City performed brilliantly, annihilating South Kingsville in a superb exhibition of power football.

City blazed away at the goals continuously.

The only blemish in an otherwise perfect performance was inaccuracy in front of goal.

Combining much better as a team and applying the play-on game to perfection, Altona's Vikings simply ran riot, never giving the South Kingsville defence breathing space.

Selecting the better players was an unenviable task, however. In a very even team there were some players who produced that little extra that deserves mention.

Mal Tisdale was a dynamic centreman, winning kick after kick, and driving his team into attack continually.

Glen Morgan gave a dashing display on the wing combining pace and anticipation cleverly. Geoff Hardham displayed the ideal temperament for a half-back flanker, breaking clear on innumerable occasions with vigor and determination.

Ian McLeod excelled in the ruck. His performance around the ground was a decided factor in the side's big win.

Marty Crump's performance as a ruck-rover was perfection itself — this dynamic player has everything going for him, and is performing better week after week.

Ron Schwabe carried on from where he left off last week. Brilliant high marking, and penetrating kicking, being Ron's long suits.

Alan Walgers continually confused the opposition with his elusive ball handling and damaging attacks and Laurie Egan produced his usual above-average performance, streaming forward endlessly, probing defence weaknesses continually.

Stephen Chaffield and Austin Molloy shared the roving honors, with Stephen in particular dominating the centre break-aways.

Jack Rosenboom was a very solid defender and Danny Brennan was impressive.

Russ Ewen played particularly well in the back-pocket and Gary Munro, after a frustrating first half, found his lost accuracy, finishing up with eight goals at full-forward.

He could easily have had 15 if he had worn his old boots. . . .

GOAL - KICKERS: G. Munro 8, Mal Tisdale 4, M. Crump 4, G. Ewen 3, S. Chaffield 3, A. Walgers 2, D. York, G. Morgan, I. McLeod, R. Schwabe, 1 each.

FINAL SCORES: Altona City 28.31 (199) d. South Kingsville 5.4 (34).

In Second Division, the Vikings thrashed Laverton.

The seconds, growing from strength to strength, put on a memorable display at Grant Reserve.

How far can this team go?

The ultimate in Second Division is to gain promotion to the division above, but this is not the case with Altona's second side. Their ultimate is to win the premiership alone, as promotion is impossible.

The possibility of achieving this aim is becoming more of a reality each week.

Pouring on goal after goal, in an absolutely scintillating performance, with brilliant hand-ball, high-marking and pace, the side appeared to be more evenly balanced than in previous weeks, and the final scores indicated a definite improvement both in attack and defence.

Tommy Hogan is set for a great year. This lad is doing everything right, particularly marking.

Enzo Valente, showing a welcome return to form, was the focal point for attack and finished up converting nine of his opportunities into goals.

Mick Oram was a creative half-forward, using his skill and knowledge to win many kicks. David Berry showed a liking for the role of ruck-rover, displaying his usual constructive team play.

Ken Churchill roved well, being particularly useful around goal.

Steve Grainger showed his usual courage and determination. Frank Boyd won a million kicks in the centre, roving far and wide, he penetrated deeply and will put pressure on players in the First Division who think their place in the side is set.

Graeme Brennan showed many glimpses of his old form and Gordon Wilson also put together a constructive game.

The ball never got past Bill Devereaux at centre half-back. Paul Iiter was a great ruck-rover. He was an inspiration to his younger team-mates and showed them the way on many occasions.

Peter Thompson played his best game to date. Young Pete rucked brilliantly, creating many good avenues to goal with clever handball and positive disposal.

GOALKICKERS: E. Valenti 9, K. Churchill 5, M. Oram 4, S. Grainger 2, G. Wilson 2, T. Hogan 3, D. Berry 3, G. Brennan 2, W. Devereaux, 2, P. Thompson, F. Boyd, J. Neal, one each.

FINAL SCORES: Altona City 35.27.237, d. Laverton 0.2.2.

Both the under 16 and under 18 teams received walkovers.

This is a deplorable state of affairs and immediate action should be taken by the league.

Both the Colts teams went down to Westport on Saturday morning — however, they will certainly improve.

The enthusiasm shown by the under-12 boys will certainly make up for their lack of ability.

It appeared as late as last Thursday that we would not be able to field a team in the under-14.

But, fortunately, some of last year's players came down, and we just managed to make a team of 18.

Coach Bill Knight now has the nucleus of a team to build around, but we are in dire need of more under-14 boys.

Any parent who is concerned about the welfare of their son need have no fears with Altona City Football Club.

SCORES: Under 12's: Altona City 0.2.2, Westport 5.11.41.

Best players: E. Sorrell, P. Stephens, S. Smith, R. Burns, W. Nolan and D. Rosenboom.

Next week: Laverton v. Altona City, Altona Rovers v. Werribee, Holy Trinity v. Williamstown Methodists. Westport have a bye.

Centrals set for a "ripper" season

Centrals continued on their winning way with a convincing win over Newport Methodists. Centrals took a quarter to settle down in the gusty conditions but from then on took command of the game.

The game was played at a fierce pace early, with both sides fumbling badly and finding the ball hard to judge in the air.

Goals were hard to score but Centrals led by five points at the first change.

The second quarter brought about some of the best football of the match. Kevin Gilchrist was on top on his half-forward-flank and combined well with Jim Cargill for Centrals to lead 7-9 to Newport Methodists 4-4 at half time.

Central's fitness and teamwork proved far too much for Newport Methodists in the second half.

Ted Jepson, setting the example with excellent handball, brought every Centrals player into the game for an all-out team effort.

Central's strong back-line pressurised Newport into mistakes and conceded only one goal, three behinds in the second half.

Final scores: Centrals 16-13-109 to Newport Methodists 5-7-37.

Best: W. Kennedy 3, J. Lott 2, K. Murrell, E. Szatkowski, M. Sayers, P. Rogash 1.

Other goal scorers: J. Cargill 3, K. Gilchrist 3, R. Cole, A. Deans, L. Cooke, E. Jepson 1.

B DIVISION

Centrals notched up their second win by downing Brooklyn in appalling conditions at Langshaws Reserve.

Despite gale-force winds and hail, some excellent football was produced by both sides.

Brooklyn moved quickly into attack and notched two goals before Alan Deans recorded Central's first major.

It was a battle of defences as both sides struggled for supremacy. Quarter-time scores, three goals apiece.

The game was very even with both sides putting everything they had into the game.

Goals from Alan Deans and Mick Terafa kept Centrals in the game. Half-time scores: Brooklyn 5-3 to Centrals 5-1.

The third quarter won Centrals the match.

Coach Murray Sayers' sure ball handling in the Street on Saturday, July wet enabled him to snap up two goals and another from Laurie Cooke, gave Centrals a winning break.

Great defence by Rod Code, Murray Rogash and John Campbell kept Brooklyn scoreless for the quarter.

Three-quarter time scores: Centrals 8.5 to Brooklyn 5.3.

The last quarter was a formality as both sides were tired and cold.

Centrals kept striving forward and matched everything Brooklyn could throw at them.

Final scores: Centrals 11.9 (74) to Brooklyn 7.7 (49).

BEST: A. Deans (3), M. Sayers (2), K. Gilchrist (2), G. Kelly, A. Vassiliadis (1).

Other goal scorers: W. Kennedy, R. Makinson, M. Terafa, M. Davis (1).

Street stall

Altona council has granted permission to the Salvation Army to conduct a street stall in Pier Street on Saturday, July 1.
